Rosemary is founder and director of Triple Win Enterprises and author of The Mentor Within. She is a business mentor and expert facilitator and provides conference strategy advice for powerful community-building events. She is a force for good, creating collaborations through her philosophy of Triple Win which she says is more powerful than win-win. Rosemary has worked with community and welfare workers, social entrepreneurs, thought leaders, authors and change agents. Currently Rosemary assists authors to leverage their books for positive impact on the world, and adapts conferences and meetings to have real impact.

Rosemary offers tools and techniques for clarity, confidence and commitment. A session with her reframes, refocuses and reinvigorates (www.triplewin.com.au).
